

General Info

We are excited to be opening the gates of CYJ for our annual Family Camp this November. We know everyone needs a change of scenery and your campers are missing racing down the waterslide and eating too much coffee cake. Family Camp will look a little different this year but we hope to once again celebrate Shabbat together in the beautiful hill country.

CYJ Family Camp will only be able to run if it fits into the guidelines dictated by the state and local government by the start date.

In order to promote safe and appropriate social distancing, it will be understood that families will operate as an individual unit. Parents will be 100% responsible for the supervision of their children throughout the session. CYJ Staff will not take responsibility for supervising or babysitting. CYJ Staff may be facilitating family activities but there must be at least one parent/guardian available to supervise at all activities. Social distancing and following health and safety guidelines is the responsibility of the family.

Each family will be expected to sign a waiver releasing CYJ of any liability as it relates to Covid-19.

Capacity

We consider a family unit a group of 10 or less who have been cohabitating and come to Family Camp with the intention to stay physically distant from other groups. We understand that this family unit may extend beyond traditional family units.

A minimum of 10 families per weekend will be necessary to hold the event. Maximum number of families is 20.

Housing

At Family Camp, we provide 3 types of (air-conditioned) accommodations.

- Families can choose to stay in one of our 22 cabins. Each unit includes 10 bunk beds and a bathroom with 3 sinks, 2 toilets, and 2 showers.
- Families can also choose to stay at our Lodge or Health Center. The Lodge accommodations offer single rooms furnished with 1 twin bed, 1 queen bed, a sink, and a private bathroom. Each Lodge room can host a family of 3. The Health Center offers private rooms with 1 queen size bed, 1 bunk bed (2 twins), and a private bathroom.

You are welcome to request your preferred accommodation, but your request is not a guarantee, however, every family will have a private room or bunk.

Covid-19 Protocols

Masks

- It is mandatory every attendee and staff member wear a face mask/covering while inside any public space.
  - This includes the dining room when you are not sitting at your table to eat. Please be mindful of times when you get up for the bathroom or food.
  - This also includes walking between rooms in the Health Center
- Masks must be worn when interacting with staff or guests not in their household even when outside

Screening

- We ask that families do temperature and symptom checks for 14-day prior to arrival.
- If anyone in your family exhibits symptoms of Covid-19 or is exposed to anyone that tests positive for Covid-19, within 14 days prior to arrival, we ask that you immediately contact us and refrain from attending Family Camp.
- All staff members on site will maintain the same protocols
- All families will fill out a Covid-19 screening questionnaire upon arrival

Cleaning/Sanitizing

- All housing spaces will be cleaned/sanitized prior to each guests arrival
- All sleeping areas will also be supplied with disinfectant wipes for families to use throughout their stay
- Staff will follow a scheduled routine of wiping down tabletops, chairs, handrails, doorknobs, public restrooms, and other common space areas multiple times a day.
- Hand sanitizer will be available throughout camp and in every guest room.
- Water fountains will be discontinued from use and water filling stations will be set up around camp

Social Distancing

- We will abide by strict social distancing protocols while at Family Camp
- Family members will participate in activities with their family unit and remain physically distant (6ft) from other participants
- Each family will be assigned a specific table in the dining room and in outdoor seating area for meals

Activities

- Many of our CYJ favorite activities will be open for families to use either by pre-scheduling or when you choose to during the weekend
- CYJ will provide sports, arts, and other equipment that will be sanitized between each family use, but we encourage you to bring your own to keep with you throughout the weekend.
- Sign up for your favorites or try something new:
  - Reserve a timeslot for your family at the pool and race down the water slide
  - Sign up for a family archery lesson
  - Rent out our bikes and take a bike ride around the neighborhood
  - Play a fun family game of basketball, tennis, or soccer
  - Bring out your creative side with arts and crafts projects
  - Roast marshmallows and make s'mores at the campfire
  - Relax in the great lawn reading a book or playing a board game
  - Celebrate Shabbat CYJ-style
  - Join in on everyone's favorite Rikud (Israeli Dancing) to end Shabbat
  - And so much more!

Meals

- Each family will be assigned a specific table in the dining room and in outdoor seating area for meals, weather-dependent:
  - Breakfast will be extended and you are welcome to come and go as you please in the dining room with a socially-distanced buffet line served by staff
  - Lunch and dinner will be served family style in either our outdoor or indoor seating area
- Snacks will be provided throughout the weekend
- To-go snacks will be provided for your drive home on Sunday

Cancellation Policy

Cancellations made more than 2 weeks before the retreat date will be fully refunded minus a non-refundable $25 registration fee per participant. Cancellations made within 2 weeks of the event will receive a 50% refund. Day of cancellations or no-shows are responsible for 100% of the retreat fees. Any cancellation that is Covid-19 related will receive 100% discount regardless of the timing of the cancellation.
